Approval of Minutes:

A decision was made to postpone the approval of the June 11, 2015 meeting minutes of the Historic Preservation Advisory Commission, Belvidere, NJ, due to not everyone received them.

Applications:

Belvidere United Methodist Church property at 219 Hardwick Street

The church proposed to use Fipon for railings, Azak for decking and fiber glass for columns.

A motion was made by Jay Raheb, seconded by Sue Beall and carried authorizing that the application be approved as presented

Old Business:

Concern about work on the vacuum shop not being finished. It was proposed that we send a letter to Mr. Tony Ferreira asking when the work would be done.

Pat Butler proposed the digitizing of the records of the homes included in the historic designation application and took one book home to begin the project.

Adjournment:

A motion was made at 7:40 P.M. by Gary Greenwald, seconded by Jay Raheb and carried to adjourn the August 13,2015 meeting of the Historic Preservation Advisory Commission, Belvidere, NJ.

Respectfully submitted,

Patricia Butler, Secretary
